EMERGENCY MEDICAL TECHNICIANS

KAELYN E. JOHNSON

A Wilcox Technical High School graduate, Kaelyn received her EMT Certification. Kaelyn's passion for emergency services comes from a personal experience she had as a young child with an amazing EMT by her side. She currently works as a Certified Nursing Assistant, and her short term goal is to secure a career position in emergency services as an Emergency Medical Technician with a long term goal to become a Paramedic.

ELAINE COLON

Elaine received her EMT Certification, while maintaining her job, caring for her children and managing to find time to be part of the Evacuation Committee, volunteer at shelters, non-profit organizations, DCF and tutor. A champion as described by one of her mentors. Elaine plans to further her education within the medical field and continue to achieve and make a difference.

RACHEL M. WALKER

Rachel obtained her EMT Certification and currently attends training/classes at Bloomfield Volunteer Ambulance to gain experience. Rachel plans to put this grant towards furthering her education in emergency medicine. Rachel is determined to reach her lifelong goal to become a Flight Paramedic.

PARAMEDIC

SEAN SULLIVAN

Sean received his Paramedic certification through New Britain EMS Academy. He is currently employed as a Paramedic with Hunter's Ambulance Service, Inc. Sean's career goals are to obtain his CPR instructor certification and his EMS-I certification so that he can become a field training officer. Sean's thoughts "it is not just enough to be trained to render aid to others, I want to be able to teach other people how to render aid as well."

LUCAS MONCEVICIUS

Through much dedication and determination, Lucas obtained his Paramedic certification through American Professional Education Services. He is currently employed as an EMT with Hunter's Ambulance Service, Inc. Lucas' long term goal is to succeed zealously in the field of paramedicine and "continue to be a humble servant to the citizens around me."

DEGREE PROGRAM

BAILEY MCCLURE

Bailey graduated from Maloney High School with her Certified Nursing Assistant certification. Currently, Bailey is a student at Quinnipiac University and enrolled in a four (4) year nursing curriculum. Bailey is an extraordinary student; she has made the Quinnipiac Dean's List consecutively for the past two (2) semesters. Bailey was selected as a representative for the Quinnipiac Student Nurse Association where she attends Executive board meetings monthly and also assists in projects such as "blanket mailing" for the homeless shelters. Her interest in the nursing field developed in high school, she was enrolled in the Certified Nursing Assistant class, and thereafter she obtained employment at her current employer, Franciscan Home Care and Hospice Care where she is constantly reminded as to why she has chosen this career path. Bailey continues to strive in efforts to reach her ultimate goal at becoming "the best nurse I can possible be."
